

COLT SMITH

Being able to witness wildlife firsthand while growing up in the Colorado Rocky Mountains gave Colt a great love and respect for animals. Even before he was allowed to hunt, Colt spent countless hours tracking with his dad while he hunted, learning everything he could. The rest is history. Colt started hunting at the age of 8 and guided his first big horn sheep hunt at just 17. Since then, he has guided many more successful hunts for the Colorado Big 5. In between guiding other hunters on once in a lifetime hunts, Colt has been able to fulfill his own passion for hunting, putting up multiple records in both Boone & Crockett and Pope & Young including elk, mule deer, and black bear. Colt prides himself on being able to adjust each hunt according to the client's skill level and wishes. Growing up surrounded by these majestic animals has given Colt a keen sense that enables him to make decisions others wouldn't to ensure a successful hunt. Whether the hunter is 9 months pregnant on their first elk hunt or a seasoned professional going for the trophy kill, Colt has the knowledge and experience to get it done.
