

TODD CLARK

A CO native with homesteader roots in central CO-Todd is a master guide with experience in guiding all species in CO. He also has a background as a professional butcher and is a trophy and meat care specialist. He is a dedicated sportsman and father who has guided more hunts in his lifetime than most professional hunters will go on in theirs. Todd is a world class guide with the skills to give his client a first rate experience.